

House Resolution No. 2362

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have admirably assisted state government in providing its much-needed services and programs in the efficient, effective manner mandated by the public; and

Whereas, Jane Burd has attained considerable distinction as a Revenue Section Supervisor for the Missouri Department of Revenue, Division of Taxation and Collection, Business Tax, Excise Tax Section; and

Whereas, a Department of Revenue employee for nearly thirty years, Jane Burd will retire on April 29, 2005; and

Whereas, during her tenure with the Department of Revenue, Jane Burd also served as Assistant Supervisor for the Technical Support Section, revised the Sales/Use Tax Rules and Regulations, helped to implement House Bill 1629 and Senate Bill 619 which made major reporting changes for motor fuel tax licenses, joined the Motor Fuel Fraud Task Force, attended a Risk Management workshop and then helped provide a risk management plan for the Fuel Tax Automation Project, and helped implement the first stage of the fuel tax automation system after two years of planning and testing; and

Whereas, holder of Cosmetology and Real Estate licenses, Jane Burd attended national seminars for Leadership and Supervisory Skills for Women in 1989 and Assertiveness Skills for Women Managers and Supervisor in 1990; and

Whereas, Jane Burd is the beloved wife of Ronald Burd, a retired telecommunications technician and engineer; the daughter of Raymond Hagan, retired State Assistant Superintendent of Vocational Agriculture; and the sister of Sharon Gonder, retired elementary and university special education teacher, and Janice Wood, retired teacher of children with special needs:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the leadership contributions so generously given by Jane Burd to the Missouri Department of Revenue and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jane Burd of Jefferson City, Missouri.

Offered by _____ Representative Bill Deeken
District No. 114

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 2362, adopted April 20, 2005.

Rod Jetton, Speaker